6. Exhibitors will only be allowed to exhibit in three different Premium Sale eligible divisions. Exhibitors may exhibit a maximum of two animals per species, with the exception of poultry and rabbits. Exhibitors may exhibit two (2) pens of broilers. Exhibitors may exhibit two (2) meat pens of rabbits or two (2) single fryer rabbits or one (1) of each. Family Living exhibitors may exhibit up to 20 different items and Agricultural Mechanics are allowed two (2) projects.
7. The top fifty percent (50%) of each class of market steers, lambs, swine, and goats shown will be eligible to be sold through the Premium Sale. The top thirty three percent (33%) of broilers and the top twenty five percent (25%) of rabbits shown will be eligible to be sold in the Premium Sale. The Grand Champion and Reserve Champion projects will be eligible for the Premium Sale.
8. Exhibitors will be permitted to sell a maximum of two (2) projects in the Premium Sale. The sale of only one (1) minor project is permitted. Major projects include steers, lambs, swine, goats, and ag mechanics. Minor projects include rabbits, poultry, family living.
9. The Family Living Division Sweepstakes winner, runner-up and second runner-up from each age group (junior, intermediate and senior) will be eligible to sell one project in the Premium Sale. A total of nine (9) family living projects will be eligible to sell in the Premium Sale. A family living project counts toward the maximum number of two (2) items allowed in the Premium Sale for each exhibitor.
10. The Agricultural Mechanics Champion and Reserve Champion of each Division shall be eligible for the Premium Sale.
11. The entry fee for steers, swine, lambs, goats, ag mechanics, poultry and rabbits will be $20.00 per project. The entry fee for breeding animals will be $20.00 per project. Half of the breeding entry fee will go toward the breeding awards. All entry fees must be paid on or before the validation date listed in Rule # 5. Registration cards may list multiple entries eligible to show. A registration card and entry fee must be submitted for each project shown. The entry fee is non-refundable. Poultry entry fees will be paid when the chicks are ordered.
12. Market steers will be validation tagged by 8 p.m. on June 28, 2011. All market lambs, goats, swine and breeding entries will be validation tagged by 12:00 noon, on November 12, 2011. Validation days for the week prior to deadline are as follows- Lipan on Monday, Tolar on Tuesday, Granbury on Thursday and Reunion grounds on Saturday. Time of validation will be announced by the validation committee. No entries will be allowed after this date. Rabbits will be validated by 12:00 noon on December 10, 2011. Place and time of validation will be announced by the validation committee. Poultry projects will be validated at time of delivery, but must be ordered by 4:00 pm on October 14, 2011. Registration cards will be turned in to the HCLRA President or designee at the time of validation.

13. Animals may be validated under the name of two or more exhibitors, if all the following criteria are met: A. They are siblings, stepsiblings, or under legal guardianship. If siblings have different last names, it must be noted on the validation form. B. All listed are bona fide junior exhibitors and eligible to show as junior exhibitors as stated in rule #4. C. Are primarily residing in Hood County or attend a Granbury, Lipan or Tolar school. All projects must be assigned to a specific exhibitor at weight in / check in.
14. Lost validation tags for any animal shall be reported to the Advisor, then a Superintendent within one day, before the show. During the show, upon discovery, lost tags shall be reported within one (1) hour to the Advisor and/or Superintendent.
15. Family living entries must be registered through the Extension Office by noon November 12, 2011. Entry fees, $2.00 per entry with a maximum of 20 entries per exhibitor, must be paid at time of registration. Entries must have been made by the exhibitor between the dates of January 9, 2011 and January 12, 2012.
16. Agricultural Mechanics entries must be registered by noon on November 12, 2011. The entry fee shall be $20.00 for each entry. Entries must have been made by the exhibitor between the dates of January 9, 2011 and January 12, 2012.
17. The grounds will be closed and locked between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. during the show and sale. A Security Guard will be present for Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday night watch. NO overnight camping is allowed during the show dates. RV or camping trailers need to be parked in designated areas only.
18. No parents, advisors, or other adults are allowed in the classification, show or sale ring, other than show officials. An exhibitor may have an assistant of show age to assist with displaying of trophies during the sale.
19. Rabbit weigh in starts at 9:00 am on Wednesday, January 11, 2012. Weigh in for swine and lambs will be on Wednesday, January 11, 2012 between 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. All other livestock entries will weigh in Thursday, January 12, 2012, see attached schedule for Division weigh in times. All animals will be weighed by breed and only once. The weight of market steers, lambs, swine and goats will be rounded to the nearest pound. If there are any questions, the exhibitor must ask the Superintendent before the animal leaves the scale area.
20. All animals meeting show qualifications must remain on the show grounds once weigh in is completed. All animals will be penned in an authorized area. Any animal not validated and confirmed for the show will not be allowed on the grounds during the show, unless approved by the Department Superintendents.
21. Specific areas will be setup for fitting of animals.

22. The Department Superintendents will pass all animals. Sifted underweight animals will not be eligible for the market show, premium sale or standard floor sale. Sifted underweight animals will not be eligible to be sold at floor price unless approved by the Superintendents. Animals not meeting the minimum or maximum weight requirements will be removed from the show grounds by 8:00 p.m. Thursday night.
23. A judge may not judge more than two (2) consecutive years for any one species. In all cases, the decision of the judge will be final.
24. Animals must be shown and sold in their natural state. No glitter, paints, dye, adhesives or other decorations shall be used.
25. There will be a separate class in each division of the fair for children ages 5 to 8 years old. These kids will be considered "Clover Kids". Ribbons will be awarded. Animals owned by these exhibitors can not be sold through the premium sale; however they can sell at floor price if class weight requirements are met. These young exhibitors, too young for 4-H, may show animals owned by others.
26. Showmanship awards will be awarded in Junior and Senior age groups in these divisions: cattle, lambs, swine, goats, and rabbits. Ag Mechanics Division shall have one showmanship award. Please refer to the Showmanship rules.
27. No breeding animals will be sold through the Premium Sale. No animal shown in a breeding class may show in a market class.
28. A Classifier will be used to determine divisions in the following species: cattle, swine, and lambs. In all cases, the decision of the classifier will be final. Classifier has the right to require the animal to be washed or sponged off if they question color or markings.
29. The Superintendents shall set class size with a minimum of three (3) head required per class and sale numbers are based on the size of the class posted.
30. Exhibitors and contestants suspended under Texas Education Code 33.081, "No Pass, No Play" are ineligible to participate in any Hood County Junior Livestock Show activity, event or competition. Any project owned by an ineligible exhibitor is ineligible for competition.
31. All exhibitors' animals will remain under the exhibitor's care until they are loaded on trucks or trailers until released by a Department Superintendent or Show Secretary. Bedding shall be sand or shavings only in or near the barn. Exhibitors will be responsible for keeping their stall space clean during and after the show and sale.
32. All breeding animals and non-sale livestock may be released after judging of that livestock species is complete. All Premium Sale livestock will be released after the Premium Sale on Saturday afternoon.

33. The owner designated at weight-in must accompany any animal or project shown, except when two animals are in the same class. The designated owner must accompany their project at the Premium Sale. The only exceptions will be for family emergencies validated by the advisor or extracurricular school activities verified by the exhibitor's sponsor. Exhibitors that miss their sale position will not be sold in the Premium Sale.
34. Exhibitors shall wear show numbers in the show ring for identification purposes. A second set of numbers shall be distributed Saturday prior to the Sale to help with arranging the sale order and for picture identification of buyer plaques.
35. The exhibitor must inform the Show Secretary in writing by 6 p.m. Friday of their intention to floor an animal. Animals listed on the floor sale list may not be removed after the floor price is set. Animals may be added to the list after the floor price is set with Floor Buyers approval. Cattle, goat, swine, and sheep floors may be sold.
36. The dress code for all exhibitors during the Show and Premium Sale will be long pants or skirt and sleeved, collared shirts with backs that shall remained tucked in. Tee shirts, crop tops, head coverings, shorts or clothing with offensive messages will NOT be allowed. Exhibitor participation will not occur if the dress code is violated. NO CELL PHONES or communication electronic devices, such as I-Pods, iPhones or BlueTooth devices are allowed in the show or sale ring.
No exceptions. No Warnings. Violators will be required to leave the ring for that class.
37. Penalties for intentional violation of rules:
First offense – One year suspension and floor price only, no participation in the Premium Sale.
Second offense – Lifetime Suspension
38. Trailer parking, including RV's and or travel trailers shall be in designated areas ONLY. If not, the exhibitor will be penalized as stated in rule #37. Trailer areas will be posted the same as pen assignments.
39. Exhibitors will be paid for their Premium Sale projects, floor animals and family living silent auction items when all money is collected from the buyers or no later than ten (10) weeks after the Premium Sale. Six percent (6%) of all sales and add-ons handled by the HCLRA goes to the HCLRA for expenses and upkeep of the grounds. Six percent (6%) commission will be charged to family living exhibitors for silent auction items that total $300.00 or more. A buyer plaque fee will be charged to all entries in the Premium Sale. Checks will be delivered to the Ag Teachers or CEA of exhibitors that sold a project through the sale or on the floor. Checks may be released after verification that Thank You notes have been completed and delivered.
